

CHECKPOINT

APRIL 2026

Greetings, Checkpoint readers! Enjoy this installment of Checkpoint.

Please take this opportunity to see what other Posts around the world are doing to better their communities. Be sure to share the valuable information you get here with your fellow VFW members. If you know someone who is not receiving Checkpoint, encourage them to email magazine@vfw.org and get signed up. Most importantly, be sure to let us know what your VFW Post is doing in your community. Email jdyhouse@vfw.org your suggestion, and you just might see it in Checkpoint.

SCHOLARSHIP RECIPIENT TO PURSUE MEDICAL SCHOOL

As both of his parents are cancer survivors, Army vet Daniel Carr knew he wanted to work in the medical field. With the assistance of VFW’s “Sport Clips Help A Hero Scholarship,” Carr is on a pre-med track at California State University. He looks forward to the day he can work as an oncologist and help patients just as his parents were helped.

VFW STORE TO BE CASH-LESS AT CONVENTION

For those attending VFW’s 2026 National Convention in Reno, Nev., please note that all sales will be cashless at the VFW Store booth. This change will ensure a quicker process with shorter lines. Among the items on sale at convention is America 250 merchandise.
